TEACHING

- Small class sizes with generous time allowed for planning and preparation.
- Fabulous pupils - engaged and engaging, confident without being arrogant, and a lot of fun, our pupils make teaching at Headington a real pleasure.
- Teacher-led Professional Development Review programme, underpinned by a comprehensive annual CPD programme and a commitment to supporting each teacher's professional development goals. Lesson observations are ungraded and developmental, with peer observations being encouraged.
- A genuine emphasis on teaching and learning. Led by our dedicated Assistant Head (T&L), teachers are empowered to collaborate and continuously improve their practice in a way that aligns with their individual strengths and the unique needs of their subject areas.
- Support for ECTs and those working towards formal teaching qualifications. We are committed to providing an exceptional learning environment that includes dedicated mentoring, timetabling remission and access to university-supported training.

WORK/LIFE BALANCE

- Shorter terms than state schools and a two-week half term in October.
- Teachers can take advantage of flexi-time, which means they are only required to be onsite for formal timetabled commitments such as lessons, pastoral sessions, meetings etc. Teachers are encouraged to use their non-contact time in a flexible way that suits them.
- Pragmatic reporting regime - teachers produce two short written reports per pupil, per year, and attend one online parents' evening per year group they teach, per year.
- Minimal duties - break, lunch, and bus duties are managed by senior staff so teachers can get on with their core responsibilities.
- An excellent hot school lunch on working days, including vegetarian and vegan options. Hot drinks and fruit are available in the staff room, and afternoon sandwiches or cake are provided in the Senior School staff room at 4.00 pm during term-time.
- Access to a broad programme of staff wellbeing activities including access to the gym, swimming pool, step & tone and zumba classes, a popular book club and staff choir. Staff social events take place regularly throughout the year.
- Access to the fabulous school library and many fantastic digital resources and online publications.
